A Letter From the Rector's Desk

Dear Friends,

It is with supreme joy that I tell you of Sean Glennon's election to the American Guild of Organists Executive Board. Sean, as you know is a very talented musician--very talented--but he is a kind decent man. He is a man of prayer which is, of course, why he excels in decency and kindness. Please stop by the organ console and congratulate him.

As many of you know I became quite ill at church last Wednesday and was taken by ambulance to South Shore Hospital. Erica, the Parish Administrator, and Dan Connick, our Jr, Warden, and Sue Scopelleti to the rescue. Cathy got to her caregiver, dogs were fed, meds given and one of my son's was called and I got to the hospital where I was till yesterday.

I have a form of Colitis called Ischemic colitis. It was caused by dehydration. It will take time to get my self back in balance and get my strength back. BUT, I will.

This is not the St Andrew's curse. There is no curse! I am healing and should be back for next Sunday's celebration of Helen Moore and the internment of her ashes by her dear friend The Rev. Robert G. Windsor.

This told me we all need to know how to get a hold of the people in your lives should something urgent happen to you. No one knew where my sons were or how to reach them, though that was quickly solved, and Scooter was here the next day. But I was able to tell Dan, Sue and Erica. If I had been unconscious I could have told no one.

That happened to my friend, Anthony, who was the heart of the North End. He was challenged. When his parents died he opted for an apartment in the NE. The Grandparents of the community, the restaurants, the men's steam room, the barber all took care of Anthony. He always had plenty of food, clean clothes, people to tie his shoes, make his apartment nice and be with him. One day on a side street he collapsed, unconscious he went to MGH a John Doe. He died alone a John Doe. This broke a lot of hearts, all of us who would have happily been with him. A new cop on the beat, a new ambulance driver, and no questions asked. It happens.

I vowed "no more Anthony's", so "no more Anthony's," not here at St Andrew's. Erica has drawn up a simple form. Who to call should something befall you, name, address and phone. Please fill it out and we will file it in the confidential files and hope they never have to be used.

I might have tried to “tough it” out had it not been for Erica who took one look at me, ordered me to sit in a chair and called the ambulance. I am deeply grateful to Erica and look forward to working with our newly formed staff of Sean, Erica, Jesse, myself and the wardens. It is a wonderful team.

Sad News about our missing baptismal children’s family

Last Sunday there were two baptismal candles that went untaken. They belonged to Finley and Michael Geddis. The twin’s mother Brittany Beal Geddis lost her father, Michael D Beal, a 35 year member of the Randolph Police Department in the horrific car accident on Rt 3 at Derby St. on May 14. We are holding Brittany and her husband, Steve, and their 3 children, Steve, Finley and Michael in prayers and love as they go through deep grief this week. The wake for Officer Beal is Thursday, May 19 4-8 pm at Cartwright Funeral Home in Randolph, MA. The Mass of The Resurrection will be offered at 11 at St. Bernadette’s in Randolph, Ma.

A Burial

Don Howard buried Claire his beloved wife, who was also Dianne Nichol’s mother at the Hanover cemetery May 10, 2022. J Frances Stuekey and her husband Richard were buried with Claire. Frances and Clair grew up together in the 4 corners.

CONFIRMATION

Let’s meet Sunday May 29 after church—many may be gone for the holiday weekend if you are to be away please contact the church saying you wish to be a part of a confirmation group.

For those who prepared and got left with no service due to the pandemic no further class is needed. I will arrange for you to be confirmed ASAP. The rest of the confirmands need to gather with me.

Children’s sermons

Courtney and I have had a couple conversations and want to move forward with a short children’s homily Sunday before the lessons, rather than send them out in the beginning of the service.

Readers and Coffee Hour

These are wonderful ministries which we all enjoy —please consider joining the ranks of already dedicated and gifted readers and bakers.

Skip Aluisy

I want to offer my support to folks to go to this class. Skip is an engaging fellow. The book, Yuval Noah Harari , 21 lessons for the 21st Century , is wonderful and the questions it poses for our lives are critical. Come join a conversation of importance.

Deep Thanks and great energy going forward

Prayer played a large part of my healing from this bled. I thank the St Andrew’s family for those prayers.

I look forward to seeing you Sunday as we come together to embrace Helen’s family and lay Helen to rest.

Blessings and love,
Pattie

CONGRATULATIONS!!!!

Our very own music director, Sean Glennon, has been elected to serve on the Executive Committee of the Boston Chapter of the American Guild of Organists. WHAT AN HONOR! He will be serving in the capacity of one of six - Members At Large- for a 4 year term. While he did not seek this opportunity, he was honored to be nominated, and is humbled to be elected.

Sean does not anticipate this role to have any impact on his ability to serve St. Andrew's. If anything, it will be a benefit to the parish, as Sean will be more familiar with resources and opportunities available to our music ministry program.

As always, we support Sean to the fullest, and wish him the greatest luck on this new journey! We are grateful to be a part of this with you!!
